

Army Ferreira
Judge
Constitutional Court of the Dominican Republic

Lawyer. University Professor and conference speaker with a master's degree in Intellectual Property, LL.M., Carlos III University of Madrid, Spain. Postgraduate degree in Fundamental Rights and Constitutional Guarantees awarded by the University of Castilla-La Mancha, Spain. Postgraduate degree in Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure, from the National Prosecutor's School of Dominican Republic.

Prosecutor since 2005, after passing the District Attorney's evaluation process. She has held several positions within the Attorney General's Office, in the departments of Homicide, Intellectual Property, Hi-Tech Crimes, and Arms Trafficking.

Deputy Attorney General, founder and director of the Intellectual Property and Illicit Trade Unit of the Attorney General's Office, UPI-PGR, from 2020 to 2023.

Recently, she was elected as Judge of the Constitutional Court of the Dominican Republic, the highest court within the Dominican judicial system. She became the youngest female elected for this important role.

Additional information:

Participated in the International Visitor Leadership Program of the Department of State in the United States of America.

Liasson for the United Nations' Regional Center for the Peace, the Disarmament, and the Development of Latin America and the Caribbean, UNLIREC.

Represented the Dominican Republic during "Operation 404 phase 3", in July 2021, executed by the Ministry of Justice and Public Security from Brazil, the Department of Justice of the United States, and the Criminal Division of the International Office for Development, Training, and Assistance.

Represented the Dominican Republic, at the regional meeting for "Intellectual Property Rights & Global Trade Enforcement Training, HSI Caribbean, in August 2021, organized by the National Intellectual Property Rights Coordination Center, IPR Center of the USA.

Instructor for the "Training module for trainers" of the National Copyright Office Academy, organized by the Academy of the World Intellectual Property Organization, WIPO, November 2021.

Represented the Dominican Republic at the First Conference on Counterfeiting and Intellectual Property in the Lesser Antilles, organized by the Ministry of Justice of Sint Maarten.

Speaker at the "XXIII Conference of Work and Consulting for the Board of Directors of the Inter-American Association for Intellectual Property, ASIPI" organized by the Inter-American Association for Intellectual Property, ASIPI, in Medellín, Colombia.

Member of the Dominican Republic Delegation for the Fifth Evaluation of the Dominican Republic Trade Policies before the World Trade Organization, WTO, in Geneva, Switzerland.