Session A - Juniper

Managing IP Enforcement Across Borders: Lessons from the Tri-Border in Latin America
 This session explores enforcement in the tri-border and surrounding areas. Panelists will share regional practices, discuss how trade routes and differing laws affect counterfeit proliferation, and offer strategies for coordinated multi-country enforcement.

Moderator: Jose Henrique Werner, Partner, Dannemann Siemsen
Speakers:

- André Schifnagel Avrichir, Executive Secretary, National Council for Combating Piracy – CNCP
- Renato Bastos Evaristo, Customs Analyst, Combating Smuggling and Tax Evasion, Brazilian Federal Revenue Service
- Virginia Cervieri, Partner, Cervieri Monsuarez
- Deborah Lashley-Johnson, Director for the IP Attache Program, USPTO
- John Ryan, President, CustomsWatch

Session B – Violet/Wisteria

Inside Dupe Culture: Influencers, Enforcement, and the Consumer Shift
 Dupe culture has quickly shifted from harmless lookalikes to products that are, in effect, counterfeits. To some extent, dupes are driven by influencers who normalize the term “dupe” and shape how consumers buy. This session looks at how dupe influencers operate, the fine line between comparison content and illicit promotion, and how investigators are adapting with new personas, access to closed groups, and monitoring of fast-moving auction rooms. We’ll also unpack the rise of unbranded dupes and discuss how brands can respond to these trends.

Moderator: Chris Gibbins, Brand Protection Consultant, Summit Brand Advisory
Speakers:

- Matteo Amerio, President, Brand and Content Protection, Corsearch
- Christine Casaceli, IP Compliance Lead - US Legal, Temu
- John Green, Global IP Counsel - AMS Lead, TikTok
- Mandy McCarthy, Senior Director, Brand Protection, The Lumistella Company
- Donna Schmitt, Partner, Armstrong Teasdale
